

Oman

Data Strategy	National Data Strategy represents an integrated regulatory framework for management and regulation of data generated by governmental and non-governmental entities. The strategy includes identification of the source and ownership of data, mechanisms for the exchange and integration of data, and their availability to governmental and non-governmental entities.
Data Strategy in Entities	No
AI Strategy	The National Program for AI and Advanced Technologies 2020
Digital-Government strategy	The government digital transformation program 2021-2025 Digital Oman Strategy
Overall Data Governance Framework	No
Data Governance Framework in entities	No
Open Data Portal	Data portal is a free and data-sharing portal where anyone can access data relating to the Sultanate of Oman.
Open Data coordinating body	Creation and maintenance of this Open Data Policy is vested with the Information Technology Authority (ITA). National Centre for Statistics and Information (NCSI) has the overall responsibility for facilitating the implementation of the Open Data Policy and providing advice and guidance to all government agencies, and target audience.
Public sector data governance body	No
Data privacy rules	Personal Data Protection Law
Personal Data protection body	The Ministry of Transport, Communications and Information Technology (Ministry) is responsible for implementing the PDPL. The Minister of Transport, Communications and Information Technology will issue the executive regulations to the PDPL in due course.
Non-governmental data sharing guidelines	Regulated by Government Information Sharing Policy
Regulations on cross-border Data Flows	Regulated by PDPL